What does a School Based Social Worker do?

School based social workers are available at all schools in the Durant Independent School District. They are here to help children and their families with a variety of social services needs. The goal of the School Based Social Worker is to assist children and their families to make the school environment a healthy and productive experience by providing social services to those in need.

The School Based Social Workers serves as a liaison between Child Protective Services (CPS), school personnel, students and their families.

The School Based Social Worker's funding is provided through a partnership with:

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES
Bryan County Department of Human Services
